Appointment and Evaluation of an Executive Director

1. The Board, together with the Executive Director, will do an annual performance review based on a review and fit of the job description and progress towards the organization's goals. A written summary of the review will be developed in conjunction with the Executive Director and the Board.
2. For the appointment of a new Executive Director, a process will be used to determine the skills necessary for the individual to be hired, as well as the process for recruitment.
