

Accredited Supports to the Community

Community Support Worker

Are you looking for an inviting and exciting career opportunity where your role truly counts in enhancing the life of someone in your community? Accredited Supports to the Community (ASC) is a not-for-profit charitable society that is based in Olds, Alberta. With more than 45 years of service delivery for over 1500 families every year ASC provides Community Disability and Family Support Services in Mountain View County and throughout south-central Alberta.

As a Community Support Worker, you will provide high quality supports to adults with developmental disabilities who live in the community of Olds and Didsbury. Self-motivated, organized, and committed to working with a service team in a culture of collaboration and wellness; you will enthusiastically assist by ensuring individuals have adequate and necessary supports while focusing on skill development, independence, community outings, and engage in activities supporting their interests as well as their well-being. You will teach independent living skills, provide companionship, support behavioral challenges, provide personal care, and implement programs tailored to individual needs. You have great relationship building skills, are proficient with accurate and respectful documentation, and practice vigilance with health and safety.

Hours of work are based on the needs of the individual(s); therefore, shifts may vary. The successful candidate will have the ability to work a rotation of days, evenings, and weekends.

ASC's COVID-19 Occupational Health and Safety Policy is in effect. Employees must disclose their vaccination status and provide proof of vaccination. Please note that this policy applies to all employees, including new hires. If your application is successful, and you have been vaccinated, you will be asked to provide proof of vaccination no later than your start date.
