Family Disability Services Support Worker For Strathmore and Airdrie - Casual Hours

Are you looking for an inviting and exciting career opportunity in an industry where your role truly counts?

Operating since 1974, Accredited Supports to the Community (ASC) is a not-for-profit charitable society that provides services across south central Alberta for children, youth, and adults with developmental disabilities.

We provide on the job training for those with no formal training or experience who desire to enter family services. You will be joining an experienced team who provides high quality person-centred services for children and youth with developmental disabilities.

You are self-motivated, organized, and committed to working with a service team in a culture of collaboration and wellness; you will enthusiastically assist by ensuring individuals have adequate and necessary supports while engaging in activities supporting their interests as well as their well-being. You must have great relationship building skills and practice vigilance with health and safety.

Hours of work are based on the needs of the individual(s); therefore, shifts may vary. The successful candidate will have the flexibility to work evenings and weekends to meet the needs of the team and the individuals we support.

Education and Requirements:

- Grade 12, GED, or proven experience
- We will train those who have the willingness and desire to enter the human services field.
